ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 9, 1897.

PRICE 2 CTS.

Health is the best inheritance. It leaves its influence even to the third and fourth generation. What greater happiness has life in store for any man than to live to a green old age surrounded by his children and his children's children, and see them all robust, happy and successful. Happy the man who lives to carve at the wedding suppers of his grandchildren. Picture yourself a gray-haired but hearty old man at the head of the table at your grandson's wedding, thanking your Maker for the blessing of long life, and asking the blessing of good health for generations yet unborn. It is in almost every man's power to be thus blessed. It is the duty of every man to obey Nature's laws and be watchful of his health. He will have long life and happiness.

The best preserver of health is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It keeps the digestion perfect, the liver active, and the blood pure. It is the best flesh-builder and nerve invigorator. The man who resorts to it whenever he feels any symptoms of approaching ill-health will live to a hearty old age. It is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic.

Dr. H. Holt, of Whittier, Stand, Wayne Co., Tenn., writes: "In October, 1890, I was taken with a hurting in the back of my neck which gradually grew worse. I consulted a doctor. He gave me a course of treatment but I gradually grew worse under it. At last my trouble ran into what was called 'spinal affection.' I could hardly walk about at all. Finally I became as helpless as a child. I wrote you at Buffalo, N. Y., in regard to my condition and you answered me promptly and prescribed Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took the 'Discovery' and soon got well. My health continues good."

Druggists sell Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They cure constipation. They cure quickly and permanently and never gripe. One is a gentle laxative; two a mild cathartic.

A FORTUNE TO MARRY HER.

A dispatch from Louisville says: Mrs. Julian Irwin, aged fifty-two years, and whose fortune is estimated at $300,000, yesterday gave Will Botto, aged twenty-one years, $25,000 to marry her, and he is now on his way to New York on a bridal trip by himself. He left his bride in Louisville, and she seemed well content, giving him $1,000 in cash for incidental expenses, and telegraphing to her bankers in New York that he could draw on her account for $7,000 more during the trip. The new Mrs. Botto is the widow of Capt. William Irwin, who formerly owned and operated the Louisville and New Albany ferry line. She is handsome and well preserved, and formed the acquaintance of young Botto about four years ago. At that time her only son, Guy Irwin, became of age, and inherited $50,000 from the estate of his father. The boy bought a string of horses and took young Botto on a trip to New Orleans with him. They had a gay time, and it resulted in the death of young Irwin from paresis. His remains were sent home in a silver casket that cost $4,000. The mother of young Irwin was with them on the trip, and she and Botto became fast friends. The mother fell very much in love with him, but he loved a Cincinnati girl and secretly married her. When Mrs. Irwin learned of the marriage of her young lover she was very angry, and there is said to have been a scene. The young man afterward procured a divorce. Mrs. Botto No. 2 belongs to one of the best known families in the South. Her young husband is the only son of Col. John Botto, a leading business man. The discarded Mrs. Botto came from Cincinnati, and she left for Louisville two weeks ago, when she learned that she was no longer the wife of Botto.

A MASHED TRAPPED.

There was a good lesson to would be masher administered to young Maurice Butler by Miss Edith Hall, an actress playing at an ocean resort near New York city. Butler, who is a sixteen-year-old student in the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, was in a police court Tuesday morning as a result of his unwelcome attentions to Miss Hall, who is said to be about thirty. The police court examination developed a story of peculiar interest. The student was attracted by the stage appearance of the actress, who is at the head of a company performing at Bergen Beach, and sent her a bouquet of flowers, in which was a note. The note contained a request for a meeting, and the actress was to wear the flowers if she consented to the meeting. In order to trap the unwary youth, Miss Hall wore the flowers, and afterward met him at the place designated. There were four chorus girls and two men in ambush nearby. These fell upon the young and unsuspecting student and ducked him in a pool. They didn't drown him, but when he became penitent they caused his arrest. In the police court, Dr. Butler, his father, a physician, pleaded with Miss Hall to withdraw the charge. She refused, and the case was put off till Thursday. "Never in the course of my experience," said Miss Hall yesterday, "has such a thing happened to me."

Young Butler is believed to be permanently cured of the mashing habit.

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison of the Worthington, Ind., "Sun" writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2025 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat, nor digest food, had a backache, which never left her, and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Prices 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

For Over Fifty Years

They Are Off.

As previously announced, we have inaugurated a MID-SUMMER CLEARING SALE. What does it mean? Well, it means that every pair of summer shoes in the store must go, and to accomplish this we have marked them down until the profit no longer exists and in many instances they are marked at less than cost.

The bargain counters are full of nice, spicy and stylish footwear for men, women and children at prices less than cost of manufacture. You cannot afford to let this opportunity pass unnoticed, and we cannot afford to hold the goods.

This is not a lot of auction shoes bought for the occasion, but my regular stock goods marked way down.

All are invited to inspect.
